The Honorable
Jean-Pierre Asvazardourian
Ambassador of France to the Czech Republic
Prague

Prague January 9, 2015

Dear Mr. Ambassador,

Following the terrorist attack at the offices of Charlie Hebdo magazine this week, let me on behalf of our organizations, our Board and staff extend our deepest condolences to the families of the victims, to people of France and to all affected by this tragedy. As much as it is a personal tragedy for all those directly affected by this heinous incident, any such attack on an independent media outlet is at the same time attack against our values, our freedoms and all we cherish and strive for.

Our minds are with France, Paris residents, the victims, their relatives and friends.

Yours most sincerely,

Jana Chržová

Chair of the Czech Women's Union & Czech Women's Lobby

Nous sommes tous Charlie !
